Mr. Nangle of Lowell, for said committee, then reported that the matters be scheduled for consideration by the House.

Under suspension of Rule 7A, in each instance, on motion of the same member, the bills severally were read a second time forthwith; and they were ordered to a third reading.

Subsequently, the noon recess having terminated, under further suspension of the rules, in each instance, on motion of Mr. Speliotis of Danvers, the bills (having been reported by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to be correctly drawn) were read a third time; and they were passed to be engrossed. Severally sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Recess.

At twenty-three minutes after eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Hill of Ipswich (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair), the House recessed subject to the call of the Chair; and at seven minutes after one o'clock, the House was called to order with Mr. Donato in the Chair. Recess.

Paper from the Senate.

The House Bill relative to racing days at Suffolk Downs (House, No. 3203), came from the Senate with the endorsement that it had been passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with amendments striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text contained in Senate document numbered 36; striking out the emergency preamble and inserting in place thereof the following emergency preamble: Suffolk Downs and supplemental appropriations.

“Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to make supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2015 and to make certain changes in law, each of which is immediately necessary to carry out those appropriations or to accomplish other important public purposes, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.”; and Striking out the title and inserting in place thereof the following title: “An Act making appropriations for fiscal year 2015 to provide for supplementing certain existing appropriations and for certain other activities and projects.”.

Under suspension of the rules, on motion of Mr. Dempsey of Haverhill, the amendments were considered forthwith.

The same member then moved that the House concur with the Senate in its amendments with a further amendment striking out all after the enacting clause (inserted by amendment by the Senate) and inserting in place thereof the text contained in House document numbered 3332. The further amendment was adopted.

The House then concurred with the Senate in its amendments, as amended. Sent to the Senate for concurrence in the further amendment.

Subsequently the bill came from the Senate with the endorsement that said branch had non-concurred with the House in its amendment.

On motion of Mr. Dempsey the House insisted on its further amendment (striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the text contained in House document numbered 3332); and the bill was returned to the Senate endorsed accordingly.

Recesses.

At twenty-five minutes after one o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Hill of Ipswich (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair), the House recessed subject to the call of the Chair; and at eleven minutes before three o'clock, the House was called to order with Mr. Donato in the Chair. Recesses.

The House thereupon, on further motion of Mr. Hill, took a further recess subject to the call of the Chair; and at sixteen minutes before six o'clock the House was called to order with Mr. Donato of Medford in the Chair.

Order.

On motion of Mr. DeLeo of Winthrop,— sitting.

Next

Ordered, That when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet tomorrow at eleven o'clock A.M.

---

At sixteen minutes before six o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Hill of Ipswich (Mr. Donato of Medford being in the Chair), the House adjourned, to meet the following day at eleven o'clock A.M., in an Informal Session.
